4) We have no such rule in Nagpur State - though there is a similar rule when the last day of the holiday falls on a Sunday the next day Monday is declared the holiday. This rule was observed last year & I think the Registrar & the Chief Court may be approached & may be declared the public holiday -

5) Please submit this when with all the reference matters any delay -

Dear Sir,

The 23d December 1922 will be a public holiday in the C & M. Station, but not under the Negotiable Instruments Act. That is to say it will be a holiday for the Offices, but not for the banks

Yours truly

Dear Mr. Venkoba Rao,

It is understood that the 23rd December next will be observed as a public holiday in the C. & M. Station owing to Christmas Eve falling on Sunday. The Government of Bengal is also stated in the papers to have issued a similar Notification. In Madras the penultimate Saturday of the month is understood to be a general holiday.

May I request you to kindly inform me if the day in question is going to be observed as a holiday in the Mysore State also.

Yours Sincerely,

Registrar, Chief Court
of Mysore, Bangalore.
